About Music Week

Friends of Music, a mostly Campbell River group of music teachers and music lovers, has been organizing and running a non-competitive music festival, called Music Week, for thirty-three years. Music Week runs for twelve days and welcomes students of all ages.

Music Week has four components. Pizzicato is for string players. It includes RCM, Suzuki, Fiddle and Ensemble classes. A Quick Study class was added last year.

Carnival is for piano students from beginning level to approximately RCM Grade Two. Students work in small groups, according to their age and level, with an experienced master teacher. There are no marks or written adjudications, but students receive individual attention and help in a non-threatening atmosphere.

The Fiesta portion of Music Week is for piano students from the Grade Three level and up. These students will be grouped according to their level and type of music. The master teacher will give them a verbal and a written adjudication, but there will be no marks or ranks. There is a wide variety of classes for Fiesta students to enter.

Cantabile is for voice students at all levels, singing a wide variety of musical styles, including musical theatre, jazz, ensembles and duets. There will be a verbal and written adjudication for Cantabile performers, but no marks or ranks.

The format of Music Week is more like a master class than a competition, and we encourage students to relax and learn from their fellow performers. The organizers hope that many people - students, teachers, music lovers - will buy a Music Week pass and share in the celebration of this thirty-third Campbell River Music Week.

Information and Regulations for Music Week

1. The Music Week program, which is distributed to teachers about a month before Music Week, will tell students when they perform. Titles of selections will appear in the program. Each family is required to purchase a program.
2. On the day of the performance, students must provide the door secretary with the original copy of the music. To make the job easier, students are asked to hand in the same edition being used, and not to share books with others in the class. Students without music will not be allowed to perform. Teachers, please ask your students to do the following:
 - a) open the music to the correct page, & put the student's name on it.
 - b) number bars at the beginning of each line.
 - c) claim the music at the end of the class!
3. If you do not have your music memorized, be sure you have an additional ORIGINAL to perform from.
4. Refunds are given only in the case of illness, on receipt of a doctor's certificate.

5. The Music Week committee reserves the right to make the final decision on any questions or irregularities which may arise, including limits to entries.
6. Please read the last page, which clarifies our policy on photocopying.

This package should contain, besides this syllabus:

1. Two Master Lists (Carnival, Fiesta, Cantabile, Pizzicato) or more, if you usually enter many students

2. One Volunteer List (which you must fill out)

3. Several application forms (the number is based on how many you needed last time).

You use the same forms for all four disciplines, unlike last year. Please do not use old forms. Use one form for each class entered. The bottom part of the form becomes the sheet the Master Teacher writes on (Fiesta, Cantabile, and Pizzicato only)

4. A form to fill in if you want to place an ad in the program

5. An entry form for the Ruth Scott Chopin Competition

Important

Each teacher whose students are playing in Music Week is responsible for at least two assistants for each ten students. These assistants will work at the door or act as secretaries. Their duties are pleasant, they will be able to enjoy the performances, and they will not have to speak in public. Senior students, parents, relatives and friends interested in music all make good assistants.

Please ensure that the people whose names you give us know the dates of the festival and have committed themselves to at least one session. We will contact the people on your list to arrange a schedule. We would be delighted, of course, to receive a long list of names. We would also like to encourage all teachers to become members of Friends of Music.

How to register for Cantabile, Carnival, Fiesta, and Pizzicato

1. Separate registration forms must be completed by the teacher for each student. (In the case of duets, trios and ensembles, put all the names on one form.) Please use the forms provided. More are available from the committee.
2. Master Lists: Each teacher must submit one Master List for each of Fiesta, Carnival, Pizzicato and Cantabile, listing students, classes and fees. Please enter duets, trios and ensembles only once, that is, all names on the same line. Make sure we can read it (and that your student's name is correctly spelled), and keep a copy for your records. Please fill out separate master lists for each event. Ruth Scott applications do not go on the Master List.
3. Volunteers are vital. Each teacher must provide at least two assistants per ten students, preferably more. These may be parents, senior students, relatives or friends who would be at Music Week anyway. Please confirm the dates with your assistants before you submit their names. Please list your names on the volunteer form provided. Applications will not be processed until this form is complete.
4. Programs: Please order one program per family (obligatory) and one for the teacher (optional) at $2 each. Include this amount with your entry fees. Teachers will be notified when programs are ready. The program is the time table, and teachers are responsible for getting the programs to their students. The Carnival, Fiesta, Pizzicato and Cantabile programs are combined. We print the number of programs ordered, so extras will not be available. Revenue from programs goes to bursaries.
5. Fees: Write one cheque only, including program fees, to Campbell River Friends of Music. Please do not send cash or postdated cheques, or cheques from parents. Please send one separate cheque for the Ruth Scott Piano Competition.
6. Cancellation: If you are obliged to cancel, please contact Sandy Havelaar, at (1)250 898 9290 (phone or text) as soon as possible. (e-mail: havelaarsandy@gmail.com.)
7. If it's neat and complete, our job is so much easier, and you will get your programs sooner. Thanks.

Music Week Policy on Photocopying

Photocopied music will not be allowed. This includes solos, second parts of duets, accompaniments and quick studies. Students who violate this policy will not be allowed to perform. Please don't put your students in this position.

The only exceptions are:

1. If written permission from the publisher is presented
2. If an entrant in a composition class photocopies his or her own composition.
3. The Frederick Harris Music Company has stated that it will permit photocopying of its publications to facilitate a page turn.
4. Accompanists. We recognize that accompanists may have problems with very heavy books, or awkward page turns. If you think using a photocopy would solve that problem, please contact Amy Lelliott (923 1420, email: amydawnlelliott@gmail.com) for a ruling. In any case, you will have to have an original visible on the piano.
5. If you have downloaded music from the internet be sure it states clearly that it has been licensed to the person who downloaded it.

Changes and Cancellations

The best way to avoid having to cancel students or ask for changes is to make sure conflicts don't happen in the first place. Grill your students about potential conflicts: band trips, school trips, dance recitals, sports events and family holidays are the usual culprits. If you know of a conflict, make a note of it on the application form and we'll do our best to schedule around it.

When the program comes out, any requests for cancellations and changes will have to come through the teacher. There will be no exceptions. This means that the teacher will be responsible for deciding if the request is reasonable and how important it is to the student and family to be able to participate in Music Week. The cut-off date for changes (not cancellations) is Monday, April 13. Notify Sandy Havelaar at (1)250 898 9290 (phone or text) or at havelaarsandy@gmail.com
